Rogers Tries To Start Something

Toronto, Nov. 28.—Hon. Robert Rogers, former minister of public works in the Borden Government, was given a banquet in the Kind Edward Hotel here tonight, which was attended by about 700, presumably all old time conservatives. The motive of the banquet had been a question of more or less guess-work on the part of newspapers on both sides of politics and supporters of the Union government, and the promoters were not known to the public. The motive was revealed tonight in a small hint from Mr. Rogers himself, and in a straight declaration from Lieut.-Colonel J. A. Currie, M. P. for North Simcoe and it proved to be the first step in the restoration of the Conservative party as a party independent of the Union government. The organizers of the banquet were not made known except that they were chiefly Toronto Conservatives, with Lieut. Colonel Boyd Magee as the chairman of the "committee" having the matter in hand. Colonel Magee was referred to in a complimentary manner by the chief guest, Colonel Currie was responsible for the statement that every constituency in the province of Ontario was represented at the banquet. He himself was a committee badge.

One Senator, Hon. W. H. Bradbury, of Selkirk, Man., seven members of the house of commons, one ex-M.P., Lieut. Colonel J. J. Carriek, of Port Arthur; three members of the Ontario legislature and one M. P. P. from Nova Scotia; Frank Stanfield of Truro, were present and most of them contributed something to the general praise of Mr. Rogers in brief speeches.

The seven M. P.'s were Colonel Currie, John Best, Dufferin; The Honourable East York; Lieut. Col. J. Arthur, Perry Sound; J. Bowman, North Huron; W. A. Clark, North Wellington; and Wm. Wright, Manitoba.

The three M. P.'s of Ontario were: Lieut. Col. Arthur Pratt, East Simcoe, and J. A. Sexsmith, East Peterborough.

One of the visitors was James Caruthers, president of Canada Steamships, Limited, Montreal. Mayor Church of Toronto presided, a large white shield at the back of the head table was lettered in red as follows:

"The Liberal Conservative party. The party of confederation. The party of the people. The party of the war. The party of the soldiers. God Save the King."

The Welcome to Mr. Rogers was enthusiastic, but little more so than that given to Colonel Currie. The ex-minister's speech was long, dry, and he read it. At the conclusion he was heartily cheered.

In introducing Mr. Rogers, Mayor Church stated that the dinner had been turned to an expression of regard for Mr. Rogers as a man and a former minister of the government, and he paid tribute to the ex-minister for what he had done for Toronto in the matter of improvement to the harbor here. Mayor Church, touching the question as to why the banquet was being given, said:

"The committee tells me that the banquet is to show a deep debt of appreciation to the Hon. Mr. Rogers, who is of the people and for the people."

Austrians Would now Like to Get Loan from Allies

Vienna, Nov. 28.—"Provided the Allies extend immediate help the Austria Republic will be able to rise from the position it is in at present," said Dr. Dedlich, former minister of finance to the correspondent of the Associated Press today.

"Our enemies should be generous and remember, at least, that Austria did what she considered her duty to her ally and tried repeatedly to give up the war. If we are helped we will be able to help ourselves. Our people are farmers and men of the industrial classes, all willing to work and not inclined to Bolshevism. Our financial position looks like bankruptcy on paper, but we will be able to pay our war debts."

"Our gold reserves are small—perhaps half a billion crowns—but that is of no great importance, in my opinion. What I urge is that we be helped back to a productive basis. If we can get food now we can get cotton, metals and raw materials, production will go on. We will also be quiet politically which is desired by America and the Allies. Whether we are to be tied up by the German federation or not is an unsettled question, even among ourselves. It is my opinion that we must form a federation with the broken up parts of the former empire for commercial purposes."

Ludwig von Neupath, director of the Austria credit bank said today, while discussing the situation.

"The Austrian republic must give me a loan to be used for the purpose of sending food and coal into the country, to prevent further famine and disorder. Then it must obtain another loan of $50,000,000 to buy a six months' stock of cotton, wool and copper. "Diplomatic pressure should be brought to bear against the Czechs who are attempting to prevent the shipments of coal and metals from Galicia and other points. The peace conference should appropriate the debts of the former Austrian empire equitably among the Czechs, Hungarians, Austrians and Jungo-Slavs. This debt totals fifty-six billion kronen, thirty-two billions of which is in all parts of the country. If the Austrian republic is made to shoulder this war debt she is bound to be bankrupt. Before the war, the normal expenses for the army, called two billion kronen. If there is no army or navy in future, this sum will be sufficient to pay the interest on the country's debt."

WARNING NOTE ABOUT THE EX-KAISER IS SOUNDED

London, Nov. 24.—"It would be a great mistake to suppose the kaiser is done with; he has many adherents in Germany who are quite resolved not to take the recent defeat lying down. Is the opinion given in the Daily Mail's correspondent at the Hague by a Dutch citizen who spent the whole period of the revolution in Bremen, and now has returned. The returned Dutchman estimates the proportion of loyalists to revolutionists as one to two, and he says a large number of soldiers are what might be called, 'true to the kaiser'."

It must not be imagined he insists that the German army, although smaller than before, has ceased to exist. On the contrary, he represents it as very much in existence, and, moreover, commanded by generals devoted to the emperor's cause.

The correspondent's informant did not doubt that something in the shape of a counter revolution would be attempted before long. He said the red flag is still flying in Bremen, but he heard that it had almost disappeared in the Rhine district.

Berlin, Nov. 25.—The German foreign minister, protesting against the publication by the Bavarian government of the documents, says the Bavarian representatives at Berne, on the suggestion of France, recommended the publication of the papers on the ground that this confession of Germany's guilt would make the entente nations more ready for peace.

IT PAYS TO WATCH DAMRON'S SALE LIST

JOHN BULL HAD 'SUBS' TOO

There were those who in the blackest days of the war declared themselves puzzled and disappointed by the seeming failure of the British to hit back at Germany with her own submarine tactics. It is not Britain's way to tell what she is doing until the time for tell. She comes, but more than once before it has been shown, in due course, that what seemed inactivity was really activity unannounced. And now it develops that British submarines have been busy and most successfully at work all through the war, with a long list of achievements to put side by side with Britain's gallant victories on top of the waves and on the land.

From first to last it is stated in a London report, England's submarines destroyed 315 enemy craft, ranging from battleships and transports to supply boats and merchant marines. Twenty German U-boats were included in the list. Besides this toll of actual destruction, the enemy was more or less harassed by the damage wrought by the British submarines upon various units of the naval forces, which, however, managed to make their escape.

The best of it too, is that in accomplishing the highly successful work of the British submarine services played the game fairly in no case, the report declares, was a merchant ship sunk at sight, and care was taken always that the crews of the vessels so destroyed were safely removed. That, it is hardly necessary to say, was not German's way.

WANT HUN SHIPS AS NUCLEUS OF CANADIAN NAVY

Victoria, Nov. 22.—The Victoria branch of the Navy League of Canada has sent the following telegram to the minister of marine and fisheries:

Victoria branch of the Navy League strongly urge that the Canadian government should request that German warships (interned under the armistice) should in the peace treaty be surrendered to the Allies and a suitable number should be allocated to Canada to form the basis of the Canadian navy. We should further strongly urge that the present highly trained personnel should not be disbanded but should be held to man the Canadian navy when obtained as part of our indemnity from the Central powers."

OBITUARY

James Andrew Cartwright one of our best known citizens was laid to rest today, a victim of the dread influenza epidemic. His was the first fatal case in the town.
He was taken ill on Sunday 24th ult, and on the following day was removed to the emergency hospital.
Towards the latter part of the week serious symptoms appeared and pneumonia developed, and in spite of the constant care of the medical men, he succumbed on Monday morning at 2 o'clock.

He retained consciousness on Sunday evening within a few hours of his death and partook of the Holy Communion on Sunday evening. He leaves behind him a brother in England and two sisters in this country. Besides there is a young lady in England to whom he was engaged to be married. Andy was born at Bick-bury in Shropshire, England, on November 5th, 1876, and came to this country six years ago. Coming direct to Calgary, he there met Mr. Chisholm with whom he has been in business at Innisfail and Lacombe ever since. His business ability and his genial and courteous manner won for him a host of friends. He was a loyal member of the Church of England and a faithful brother in the Lodge of Masons.

HE TOILED BUT HE GOT THE GRAIN

The police would like to get the present address of a man who goes by the name of "Frenchy".
Frenchy is wanted for stealing considerable grain from farmers around Clive, among them being Messrs W. Morrical and Grose.
From what information we can get "Frenchy" made hay while the sun shone, and before discovered by Mr. Morrical, had succeeded in casing in several loads of grain at Teas and elsewhere. He was discovered in the act by Mrs. Morrical on Thursday. The sound of an empty wagon going past his place, and shortly returning loaded, aroused Mr. Morrical's suspicions, and he hitched up his Ford and got on the trail. He overtook Frenchy, and when he had ascertained that there was a load of contraband on board, he made for a telephone and put the Provincial police on the job. "Frenchy" got wise, however, and suspecting Mr. Morrical was next, unhitched his team from the wagon and made off rapidly on horseback.

Pursuit getting closer he was later compelled to abandon his team, and take to the brush for hiding.
He was in Lacombe in the evening, with the police right on his heels, but managed to fade away, and has not yet been apprehended.

'Mac' Frizzell Gets Decoration

Word has been received that Sergeant A. M. Frizzell, "Mac", who went overseas with the Lacombe Platoon of the 151st, has received the Distinguished Conduct Medal for conspicuous bravery in the great and final push of the Canadians. Mac was in charge of a machine gun section, and did something to the Huns out of the ordinary. We have not yet received particulars, but are sure that it was something out of the ordinary.
"Mac" is one of the few of Lacombe's boys who has come through the great war unscathed, and he was in the thick of the fighting all the time. Lacombe has good reason to be proud of her boys and also of the record of the old 151st, and when the time comes for them to return home, they should be tendered a reception that will be remembered for a generation.

The Unionist government is far from perfect. Because the ideals with which it began its existence were so high, it was inevitable that there should be disappointment with some of its performances. But this should not blind any of its supporters to the very great service it has performed, and to the fact the country would be infinitely worse off if the plans for its extinction which Mr. Rogers is the name of old time Conservatism, and Mr. Scott, in the name of old time Liberalism, have set in motion should succeed.

HAPPENINGS AROUND BENTLEY

Now that we are to have a Bentley page in the local paper, it is up to everyone in the district to see there are no blank spaces on that page. Every individual who is in business should have an advertising space of some kind to tell the people what wares they are offering to the public. It pays to advertise or those concerns whose commodities are in most demand would not waste money, on space. But we find advertisements which cost hundreds and even thousands of dollars an issue in all the leading papers and magazines, so it is up to you to get in line and not be too bashful to let people know you are on the map, and "business as usual" is your motto.

Then with regard to news. There are lots of items of interest to the general public to fill all the space allotted to us, but the trouble seems to be to get it collected. The publishers have asked me (meaning John M. Fawcett, Bentley) to act as news collector for this page. I have agreed to do this to the best of my ability, but I need the help of every individual in the district. We have the telephone in the house, and will gladly receive any item of news from you that may be of interest to the general public. This means not only the village itself but the valley for ten miles or more in every direction. If you have sick-ness, visitors in your home, if any of you have gone away for the week end, if you have an especially interesting letter from overseas, if you lose a valuable animal or make a particularly good sale of anything, in short, anything you would like to know if it would interest your neighbors, consider that good enough to phone in for the good of our community.

If the page should fail to be interesting, do not blame the Publisher, or the correspondent, but blame yourself because you do not boost for your own community.

"Boost your Valley, boost your friend, Boost the Church that you attend Boost the street on which you're dwelling.

Boost the goods which you are selling.
Boost the people round about you; But success will quicker find them If they know you are behind them.
Boost for every forward movement.

Boost for every new improvement, Boost the man for whom you labor, Boost the stranger and the neighbor.

Cease to be a chronic knocker, Cease to be a progress blocker.
If you'd make the valley better, Boost it to the final letter.

The news letter must leave Bentley on the Monday mail to get in the weekly paper, so come along with your items.

The Report of the Bentley district Red Cross Society for the month of November is as follows:
Balance on Hand November 1st $419.07 Receipts, membership fees $4.00 Donation Helping Hand $10.00

Total $163.07
Expenditure Nil
Balance on Hand $163.07
New members: Mrs. Peter Mulack and Mrs. John J. Nelson.

The Secretary of the Red Cross in receipt of a letter from headquarters urging the speeding up of the work. Never was there more need for money and supplies than now. So we are hoping that the Bentley District people will get busy and help along this good work. We need all the members we can get and all the Donations as well. The following letter will show the need.

"Money is more needed by the Red Cross Society at the present time than at any previous time, during its operations. The idea seems to be prevalent, that Red Cross work will cease when peace is declared, and during the past few days many enquiries have reached the depot as to the necessity of keeping up donations to the society. Never before in the history of the Alberta Branch, has the need for money been more urgent. The Influenza Epidemic throughout the province, has disorganized Red Cross Work and contributions of many thousands of dollars have been cut off in consequence. No doubt the state of affairs is only temporary, but at the same time, the Red Cross feels that the urgent necessity of the moment should be placed before the public. The society is pledged to many commitments. The needs of the Red Cross and hospitals and other institutions where our wounded soldiers are being cared for, and will be cared for, for months to come, must be met. The liabilities of the Society must all be considered. Materials are required for the carrying on of relief work amongst the people of our allies, who are returning to homes devastated by war and the comfort of our returned men in Military Hospitals at home who must also be thought of.

The death took place on Saturday Nov. 23 of Harry Berry north of Gilby. This young man was born in England, 28 years ago and came to Gilby, about 7 years ago. He leave a wife and two children under 2 years of age. His father and mother reside in Calgary. The funeral was conducted on Monday, Nov. 26th, interment being made in Gilby cemetery. Spanish influenza was the cause of death.

The post office has been finished inside with plasterboard and Linoleum laid on the floor. This will make the building much more comfortable for the postmistress and adds much to the appearance of the edifice. If a number of letters, for rental had been added the office would be complete.

Mrs. H. Birch underwent an operation this week in the Lacombe hospital, at the time of writing she is progressing favorably.

Miss Nita Nicholson who has been teaching south west of Sylvan Lake for the past term has secured the position of teacher at Spruceville school for the coming term. This will give her a chance to be home much often than heretofore.

Mr. Scott, our genial Liveryman has been busy this week erecting a large addition at the front of his barn. This will give him more than double the stable room than before. This is badly needed, because, hardly a day has passed during the past ten days, when he has not had to turn away several teams because of lack of accommodation.

We note an advertisement in the paper by the local railway, calling for ties, posts, and poles. This is a good chance for some of the local workers and certainly should not be allowed to go out of the Blindman Valley. This is good clean healthy work for the winter and is much better than lying around waiting for spring to come.

We understand Mr. Bolton, manager of the Atlas Lumber Co. at Lacombe, was in town last week looking up a site for a lumber yard. Here's hoping he will not waste much time getting into the ground with his stock of lumber.

W. M. Reitzel—manager of the Union Bank, spent the week end at Didsbury.

Mr. Harry Dameron of Chigwell with his family visited his mother and brother for a few days the past week. They returned home on Monday.

Mr. W. R. Cox, returned on Nov. 22nd from Saskatchewan, bringing with him his bride, formerly Miss Ivarson of Hanley, Sask. They were married at the Presbyterian Manse, Saskatoon, on Thursday, Nov. 21st, by Rev. Mr. Clark. A party of friends dropped in on them on Monday night. A surprise and a pleasant time was had. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Cox long life and happiness.

A splendid sample of what can be raised in wheat in Bentley Valley is on view at Dameron and Thorpe's meat market. Mr. Ralph Mowbray has had his wheat grain.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sheffield spent a few days at the residence of Mr. George Meredith last week. They were on the sad errand of taking the body of their son Dewey to Bradshaw Burying Grounds near Lacombe for interment. He succumbed to an attack of influenza in the Holy Cross Hospital, Calgary.

Mr. Al. Travis of Loin, rented the Blacksmith shop of Mr. George Garries and started to do general blacksmithing work.

Mr. J. H. Morrison and son purpose showing one of their Aberdeen Angus Cows at the fat stock show at Calgary next week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Thorp are on a business trip to Calgary this week.

Messrs. Ray Miles, George and Earl Stephenson and Robert McKenzie left on Monday by Automobile for Calgary to attend a stock sale.

Mr. A. V. Cocks, of the Co-Operative store spent the week end in Edmonton.

Morrison and Johnston's Hardware store opened up for business on Monday morning with Mr. Len McDowell in charge.

Mr. Thompson of Calgary was in Bentley a few days this week with a string of Entire Horses for sale. We understand he was not successful in disposing of any of them.

Our mouse hunters returned on Saturday empty handed. It is reported that about the first and upon returning home was to raid the butcher shop and get some old fashioned corn meat to appease their hunger. However they had a good trip and enjoyed the scenery.

Mr. Block reports a curious phenomenon whilst on the trip. One day while he was away from camp, it—the camp—got lost and did not return until late the next day. This caused Mr. Block considerable inconvenience as he had to spend the night out in the bush in company with the coyotes. However nothing is so bad but it might be worse.

The Union Bank has secured the lease of the lower part of the east half of Mr. Woolgars building for a year. This will give them comfortable space for Banking office and also a cosy room at the back for the staff. Mr. Woolgar will likely move upstairs.

WRANGLE OVER NATURAL RESOURCES.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 23.—As a result of the inability of the provincial governments to come to any agreement and their demands for new subsidies running into the millions annually the western natural resources will continue in the hands of the dominion.

The cabinet has no alternative, although the absolute decision may not yet have been made. When the conference opened the government made its proposals for handing over of the public domain. The proposal to turn over all lands and minerals, reserving only certain coal and oil areas to be used by the public owned railways; the water power rights it was suggested, should be retained by the dominion as it was felt that they should be developed as a national asset, and the government was preparing to launch upon a policy. It was also proposed that the parks and the forest reserves should remain with the dominion. It was felt that the most of administration was large and the revenue small and the provinces would not be in a position to finance their administration.

All of these proposals were agreed to by the western cabinet ministers. The government then pointed out that they desired this to be a final settlement of the whole question and did not want the problem to be left in such a position that it might be opened later. They urged therefore that the provinces should come to an agreement on any terms of transfer. If there was no agreement then a dissatisfied province could reopen the whole question. The western provinces first asked that in addition to them being handed over public domain, they should be allowed to retain the present annual subsidy which was voted them in lieu of their lands. The conference was asked if this was satisfactory. The eastern provinces at once objected and a separate meeting of all the provincial representatives was held. The meeting failed absolutely to agree and the eastern provinces presented a proposal that if the western provinces were given a subsidy in lieu of lands they should be paid a similar subsidy based on population. This would have amounted to five or seven million dollars, but they did not complete the proposals. The western provinces then countered with additional demands. By this time the three western provinces and the eastern provinces along with British Columbia were so far apart that it was agreed to discontinue, and the question was dropped, and the

With such enormous demands and with an utter failure of any agreement, the only outcome must be that the dominion will continue to own and administer the western domains until the demands for additional subsidies can be either modified or agreed upon. The land settlement policy of the dominion, which provides for cooperation in expropriation and settlement of wild land held by corporations and speculators was heartily approved at the conference and likely every province will introduce necessary legislation to carry into effect the proposals this coming year.

The soldier settlement proposals were also approved in a general way, although some suggestions were made. The conference discussed the question of aid for technical education. Education is defined by the British North America act as a provincial matter and there has been objection in the past from some of the provinces to the federal government, launching a technical education policy. The provinces made it clear that they did not propose to give up their rights but no objection was raised to federal aid to provincial institutions.

Such a policy will likely be adopted this coming session; provinces will also, as a result of yesterday's discussion, be willing to cooperate with the dominion in a policy for the construction of highways. A bill for this purpose was twice introduced by Hon. Frank Cochrane only to be rejected by the senate. Legislation will likely be again introduced.—FORD

MANY CANADIAN WOMEN ASK TO GO TO ENGLAND

Ottawa, Nov. 23.—The government is being flooded with requests from women who want to go to England. Restrictions have been removed on travel to the United States and apparently there is an impression that restrictions have been removed in travelling to great Britain. This is incorrect. Transportation conditions are such that for some time it will be harder than ever to go to England. Many women want to go overseas and join their husbands while others want to tour the war devastated areas, but no tourists are wanted in Europe at the present time.

An American Tribute to Britain

What Has England Done?

Strange that in this great hour, when righteousness

Has won her war upon Hypocrisy, That some there be who, lost in littleness, And mindful of an ancient grudge, can ask:

"Now, what has England done to win this war?" We think we see her smile that English smile,

And shrug a lazy shoulder and—just smile, It were so little worth her while to pause In her stupendous task to make reply.

What has she done! When with her great grey ships, Lithic, lean destroyers, grim invincible, She swept the prowling Prussian

From the seas; And, heedless of the sinking submarine The hidden mine, the Hun-made trenches,

Her transports plied the waters ceaselessly. You ask what she has done? Have you forgot That 'neath the burning suns of Palestine

She fought and bled, nor wearied of the fight. Till from that land where walked the Nazarene

She drew the foul and pestilential Turk! Ah, what has England done! No need to ask!

Upon the fields of Flanders and of France A million crosses mark a million graves Upon each cross a well-loved English name, And ah, her women! On that peaceful Isle, Where in the hawthorn 'hedges Thrushes sang, And Meadow-larks made gay the scented air,

Now blackened chimneys rear their grimy heads, Smoke belching, and the frightened birds have fled

Before the thunder of the whirling wheels, Behind, unlovely walls, amid the din, Seven times a million noble women toil—

Nor dreams that they have played a hero's part. Great-hearted England, we have fought the fight

Together, and our mingled blood has flowed, Full well we know that underneath that mask

Of cool indifference there beats a heart, Grim as your own gaunt ships when duty calls;

Yet warm and gentle as your summer skies; A Nation's heart that beats throughout a land Where kings may be beloved, and monarchs Can teach Republics how they may be free Ah! What has England done? When came the call, She counted not the cost, but gave her all!

Bad Lands News

Ben Jaster reports a nocturnal visitor to his supply of ground-pig feed. The visitor evidently proposed to take the chop as Savis Brownman took his beer "little and often" but Ben fixed the door with a lock. The general opinion is that thief is the same that stole 200 lbs. of binder twine from George Garries a year ago.

Bentley is some stirring place these days. The new elevator seems to have a constant waiting list of grain traders and Joe and George are also busy filling cars for Trimble. Morrison and Johnston and the Union Bank have opened branches, and Morrison and Johnston expect shortly to open up a hardware line. In fact the most unobservant can easily see that Bentley would soon surpass Chicago, had not Chicago beat Bentley to it.

Some years ago Archie Pallard got lost going from Major McPherson's to his own house. In these stirring days he would need a guide at noon.

Some people can certainly get off some terrible "Bull" and think it Patriotic piffle. Recently we heard a man say apropos of Spanish Flu and not wear a mask.

If the boys can go to the front and stand being killed, or maimed, surely we can stand the chance of a little Flu." The boys at the front chance being killed or maimed in a just cause and to save civilization and decency from obliteration. The man or woman who during the flu epidemic did not wear a mask was a slacker, because he or she was not doing what the health authorities had asked us to do, to try and combat an epidemic which was incapacitating great numbers of the workers who are needed to back up the boys at the front.

Ole Boode is subject to dreams but lately he had one that was a peach. He dreamt that having laid off this mortal coil he sailed off in his favorite Maxwell to Heaven (of course we know the latter is impossible). On arrival St. Peter inquired how he arrived:

"Why in my motor." "What kind of a motor?" "A Maxwell." "Well," answered the saint "you go over there with the Presbyterians." Just then there was another knock at the Pearly Gates and Peter opened to admit "Long Puffer." "How did you get here?" asked the gate keeper. "In my auto of course." "What kind of a Auto?" "An Overland." "Well you go over there among the Methodists." Before they could move off there was another tap for admission, when, who should arrive but Norm Morrison. He stated he had arrived in his car.

"What kind?" asked Peter. "A Ford." "Well you go over there with the Christian Scientists," you only thought you had a car.

It seems to me the Allies should insist on having a detailed account of all the atrocities barbarities double dealings, lies etc, practiced by the Huns during the war with the proof thereof printed in German to be used as text books in the German Schools. If the rising generation had to study all the low down tricks and barbarities practiced by their fathers and forbears, it might induce in them a spirit of humility and a desire to live so as to raise the name of German again among that of civilized nations.

One draw back to the number of autos in rural Alberta is the danger of unprotected gasoline. Bill Baillie left his barrel in an exposed place for two days and had six gallons extracted in that time.

Demobilization Plans Don't Meet With Favor of Canadian Soldiers With the Canadian Corps, Nov. 24 (By J. F. B. Livesay, Canadian Press Correspondent). (Delayed in transmission.) The published plans for the demobilization of the Canadian army have been received without enthusiasm, as the men hoped and believed that they would have an opportunity of returning to their home as members of the fighting units with which they have so long been associated.

"Instead of this," one western soldier put it, "we are to return, not as soldiers at all, but as a mob of farmers or bakers or clerks, which our country apparently wants to get rid of as quickly as possible. I and thousands like me wanted to march into our home town with our regimental flag waving and the band playing for the fighting battalion that won fame on every field from Ypres to Cambria where the Canadian arius have been engaged."

FUTILE EFFORTS

"Bob" Rogers, discredited conservative, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier old line "Liberal," are at present engaged in trying to resurrect their old parties, and once again place Canada in the hands of the straight Grit and Tory politicians.
Their job is an uphill one. Canada is tired of party government as received at the hands of either Liberals or Conservatives.
Canada has proved to her cost that party government does not pay, and that it has caused Canada to be known from one side of the world to the other as possessing the most corrupt bunch of politicians on earth. Nothing in which graft was not predominant has been started in Canada in the last fifty years, and there has been cultivated in the Dominion a bunch of grafters second to none on the continent, whose restlessness at being kept away from the public trough has caused the above named gentlemen to undertake to bring back the old order of things.
The people of Canada a year ago expressed themselves very forcibly as being in a mood to have the order of things changed. Never in the history of any country was partyism so decisively defeated, and the majority of the people of Canada are satisfied that the change was for the better. The present government is independent of any political party, the old looting bunch of hangers-on has been rooted out, and for the first time Canada has a government that is proud of a government that has been able these strenuous times to bring Canada through with flying colors, which would have been impossible with either "Grits" or "Tories" in power.

So the "die hards" of both the old parties will have to content themselves. If it is any satisfaction to them they can call "party" conventions every other day. But they will never again succeed in hoodwinking the Canadian people. Independent government has been given a trial, and the people are satisfied with it. Sensible people will not return to the old days of graft.

PROVINCIAL HOSPITAL

Hon. A. G. McKay, the first provincial minister to be put in charge of health affairs in any province in Canada, comes forward with the announcement of a hospital policy for this province of a most progressive nature. He advocates a provincial system of hospitals which will be to health what our free public schools are to education, salaried, resident doctors in all district hospitals, training schools for nurses, maintained jointly by the provincial government and the large cities; under the Municipal Health Act; and creating large hospital districts around the city centres so as to relieve the cities of the unfair burden of taxation now imposed upon them by the care of rural patients in city hospitals. He proposes that henceforth the provincial department will take the lead in organizing and advising hospital districts, and in this he is completely reversing the plan formerly adopted which left everything to the initiative of rural municipalities.

All this is a very clear indication of the trend of health affairs in this province and an indication that the provincial government is thoroughly alive to its responsibilities and up-to-date in its methods. Hon. A. G. McKay was appointed to the cabinet only last September. The influenza epidemic broke out less than eight weeks later, and it is to Hon. Mr.
McKay's credit that, in spite of lack of preparation, he took action more quickly than any other health authority in Canada and assumed a greater amount of responsibility than any other provincial government. To his indefatigable efforts and his splendid organizing ability is due the fact that the death rate has not been three or four times as great as it has been.
He disseminated pamphlets and placed into the remotest parts of the province before the plague arrived, and he brought about a provincial organization which skillfully disposed of the very meagre resources of doctors and nurses to the best possible advantage in the scattered settlements. He spared negligent local authorities to action and came to the rescue of some places with provincial assistance. In the very beginning he issued an emergency warrant for $50,000 to cover the cost. No other provincial government gave any such aid or direction to its plague ridden people in this emergency. It is a matter of reproach to Ontario and Manitoba that the governments of those provinces remained inert while local communities battled separately with the disease. Alberta, the youngest province, led the way, and Hon. Mr. MacKay was responsible for the leadership.

Dear Sir:—
At the conclusion of the Victory Loan Campaign I wish to express to you this Committee's appreciation of your whole-hearted effective co-operation. The campaign probably provides a record in promotion by the press of a public enterprise. That this support is warmly appreciated is made plain by numerous messages which have reached this office during and since the campaign. From the Minister of Finance, from the Chairman of the Dominion Executive, from the Chairman of Special Committees, and from Provincial chairmen have come messages of cordial appreciation and thanks.

The Campaign began as a war effort. Before it ended war had ceased. Nevertheless the national will being given the Campaign such unusual support continued. It is impossible to forecast what will be the full effect in Canada during the period of transition and afterwards, of the splendid success of the Victory Loan. But at a most critical moment, its large share in that success the press of Canada will always be able to recall with satisfaction.

Yours, Sincerely,
CHAIRMAN,
John R. Bone
